

Heritage Languages and Multilingualism Day

10 February 2021

Università degli Studi dell’Insubria online at: <https://www.uninsubria.it/cerm-heritage-languages>

Programme

9.30-9.45 – Welcome address (Paolo Luca Bernardini – Head of the Dipartimento di Scienze Umane e dell’Innovazione per il Territorio – University of Insubria)

9.45-10 – Introduction (Andrea Sansò – University of Insubria)

Session 1 (Chair: Andrea Sansò)

10-10.30 – Microcontact: exploring change in contact from the Italo-Romance heritage perspective (Roberta D’Alessandro – Utrecht University)

10.30-11 – Documenting Italo-Romance heritage languages in Argentina: pilot fieldwork for the Microcontact project (Francesco Maria Ciccone – University of Insubria)

11-11.30 – Heritage languages and multilingual classrooms. The case of primary schools in Bologna (Chiara Gianollo & Ilaria Fiorentini – University of Bologna & University of Pavia)

11.30-12 – Multilingual West Yorkshire: Investigating code-switching patterns in dynamic multilingual setting (Kate Bellamy, Farah Nazir & Rebecca Woods – CNRS, LACITO & Newcastle University)

12-12.30 – HERiTAG– Heritage Tagalog in Europe and the USA. Presentation of a research proposal (Francesca Romana Moro – University of Insubria)

Session 2 (Chair: Francesco Maria Ciccone)

14-14.30 – Bilingual optimization strategies & code copy theory (Suzanne Aalberse – University of Amsterdam)

14.30-15 – The growing impact of Modern Standard Chinese on the use of Sinitic topolects in Chinese migrant families living in Italy (Daniele Brigadói Cologna – University of Insubria)

15-15.30 – Ukrainian language maintenance among heritage speakers in Italy (Paola Bocale & Khrystyna Krychkovska – University of Insubria)

15.30-16 – Understanding multilingualism: What does the ‘heritage’ label contribute? (Kate Bellamy, Maria del Carmen Parafita Couto & Brechje van Osch – CNRS, LACITO & Leiden University)